

NEW MEXICO TOWNS

SILVER CITY.

From the Independent.

J. E. Sheridan, United States mine inspector, is home again after a trip to the different coal camps of the territory.

William Casman and wife recently took up quarters in the handsome Ull residence, where they are now pleasantly located.

Mrs. Emma Kilburn and children and Mrs. Robert Bell and little son returned from a visit with friends and relatives in Deming and on the Minnibus.

Prof. E. L. Enloe of the Normal faculty left for a trip to California and Colorado points. He will conduct the teachers' institute at Trinidad while away.

Miss Mary Adonis is seriously ill at the home of Mrs. Mary Lucas, where she is stopping. Too intense application to her studies during the school term just closed seems to be the cause of her trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Newell returned from southern California where they had been for some months for the benefit of Mr. Newell's health. Mr. Newell was much benefited by the change and rest, and comes back home greatly improved.

M. D. Roberts, better known as "Uncle Dick," arrived in Silver City from Bepar. Mr. Roberts came with the double purpose of appearing before the board of county commissioners in the matter of his tax assessment and also taking in the sights of the Fourth of July celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Froeschauer in Indianapolis arrived in Silver City and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Marriott, the families having been on intimate terms for years past. Mr. and Mrs. Froeschauer are on their way home from a trip to California. Mr. Froeschauer is connected with the Holmbeck printing house in Indianapolis, and is an expert pressman.

SPRINGER

From the Stockman.

Mrs. George V. Frampton and baby, after a pleasant visit here with relatives and friends, have returned to their home at Dawson. Mrs. Bert Hubbard, Mrs. Hamilton and Bert Deacy accompanied them, returning home Wednesday.

E. B. Garcia, brother of Postmaster Garcia, came in from Los Angeles, Cal., where he has been for the past two years attending school. He expects to remain a couple of months with his brother and family and then return to his school duties.

Wednesday afternoon Ed. Athons, who was painting the new residence of George King at Taylor station, slipped and fell a distance of over ten feet to the ground, seriously injuring his back, hip and left wrist. He barely missed a large rock, which had he struck, there is no doubt but what he would have been instantly killed. He was brought to Springer for medical assistance and is now getting along nicely. It was a lucky fall for Ed, considering all the circumstances.

Tuesday while A. D. Clothier was moving his alfalfa, just on the east side of town, riding on the machine, the team he was driving became unmanageable and ran away. Mr. Clothier held on as long as he could. He knew the only thing to do was to jump off backwards, which he did, and received some painful injuries, particularly about the ribs. Dr. Davis patched him up, and now while a little stiff and sore as a result of the accident, he is out and around. The team ran into a fence and was stopped.

ESTANCIA

From the News.

Mrs. Lowe has gone to Albuquerque to attend to business matters. Jesse McGee has received word that his mother is very ill at Chickasha, I. T.

Mrs. Pelprey, of Alamogordo, is the guest of Mrs. R. P. Pope several days this week.

Leonard Ma, all has returned from Old Mexico and will resume his run on the Centra.

J. A. Dye and family of Albuquerque, have been visiting the family of W. A. Comer the past week and left for their home Wednesday.

Mrs. James M. Carlisle has been on the sick list a few days this week. Mr. Carlisle came home from Willard Saturday evening and was kept here several days. She is improving.

Ralph A. Marble, who is trying to plat the townsite of Willard, spent Sunday in Estancia. The settlers around Willard are so anxious to have their claims surveyed, that he gets very little time to work on the townsite.

WHITE OAKS

From the Outlook.

A. T. Stewart and Mrs. Phil Reasoner were Jacarilla traders in White Oaks.

Mrs. H. B. Tompkins has been visiting her son Ed and his family at Alamogordo for the past week.

The Vera Cruz mine has completed its repairs and is now running on full time and doing better than ever, so it is reported.

Carl Adamson, a live stock dealer, who stopped with Mr. Clements when he was here a little over a year ago, was knocked down and robbed in the streets of Fort Worth on the 22d of this month. He claims that the thugs got away with $3,500 in cash and a watch.

Mrs. Morris Parker and Mrs. J. J. McCourt, former White Oaks people, but now of El Paso, have fitted up the Stewart residence on the south side, and will occupy it with their respective families during the summer months. They have found El Paso a little too lurid for health, comfort and endurance.

FORAKER HAS OPPOSITION

FOR UNITED STATES MARSHAL

United States Marshal Foraker of New Mexico is again a candidate for the position which is appointive by the president. Mr. Foraker has, during his four years incumbency in office made a splendid official, and there is no doubt as to his appointment again. But he has some opposition in the person of A. G. Dawson, of Colfax county, who is said to have a bunch of admirers pushing him for the position.

The marshal's brother, the Ohio senator, when he hears his brother has not entirely clear sailing, will see the president personally and land the position again for his brother, then will Mr. Dawson realize the influence of the power behind the throne.—Springer Stockman.
